AGENDA

PURPOSE OF MEETING

- ❑ Federal guidelines require Title I schools to hold an Annual Parent Meeting to explain and discuss the Title I Schoolwide program and requirements.
- ❑ It is designed to provide students with additional help in Reading, Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies.
- ❑ Its main objective is to support schools and districts in order to ensure that high quality education is equitable for all students and closing the achievement gap between disadvantaged and minority students and their peers.
- ❑ To learn more, please visit <http://title1.dadeschools.net>.

Shenandoah Middle School is a Title I School.

ALL ABOUT TITLE I

- Title I is the largest federally funded education program under Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) designed to provide students with additional help in Reading, Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies. Its main objective is to support schools and districts in order to ensure that high quality education is equitable for all students.
- The Title I Schoolwide Program is committed to helping schools close the achievement gap between disadvantaged and minority students and their peers.
- To learn more, please visit <http://title1.dadeschools.net>. This site is designed to supply users with information relevant to Title I, in order to provide a clear understanding of the overall program.

THE EVERY STUDENT SUCCEEDS ACT (ESSA) TITLE I PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT REQUIREMENTS

The School District and all Title I schools must allocate a portion of their Title I budget towards programs, activities, and procedures for parent and family engagement.

The School District and all Title I schools must develop with and distribute to parents and family members a written Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP).

All Title I schools are required to collaborate with parents and families in the development of the School Improvement Process (SIP) and School-Parent Compact.

WHAT IS OUR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT PROCESS (SIP)?

Our School's Mission Statement

The Shenandoah Middle School stakeholders believe that the students deserve a positive learning environment to nourish the growth and mastery of intellectual, social, cultural and emotional skills. The improvement and enhancement of academic performance will be accomplished through programs that increase students' proficiency levels in reading, mathematics, science, social studies, humanities and academic excellence. Additionally, our Museums Magnet Program strives to use instructional strategies founded in humanities, to allow students to develop flexible and rigorous thinking skills based on individual experiences and interactions with object-based learning resources. We will continue to emphasize and increase the use of technology and the active support of community resources such as businesses, industries, universities, cultural partners and parents to support our academic programs, thereby preparing students to enter post-secondary education and employment in the 21st century.
